FOR EACH NEW DAY... THE RIGHT
WORD FOR YOUR INSPIRATION

Class Thoughts

February 20 to March 19

Daily at 11 a. m. join us in this thought
• for spiritual illumination:

The radiance of Thy Christ in me quickens, illuminates, and inspires me.

At high noon each day concentrate your attention on this thought for prosperity:

Thy rich substance made manifest in Christ prosperes me.

At 9 p. m. each night let us acknowledge the healing power of Spirit with this prayer:

Thy manifest word, Christ, quickens and heals me.

Silent Unity, the healing department of Unity School, is happy to minister to every person desiring help through prayer. Address Silent Unity, 917 Tracy, Kansas City, Mo. Compensation is by love offering.

EDITED UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF SILENT UNITY

Stately and tall, as pictured on the cover of DAILY WORD, the Unity Campanile or Prayer Tower directs the traveler to Unity Farm near Kansas City. Even so this little magazine daily directs your steps to the sun-tipped heights in whose glory you behold yourself as a son of God; for such you are.

BE OF GOOD COURAGE

MARJORIE FRIEND

Be strong and of good courage,
For I, your God, am here.
My love is ever constant;
My way is wise and clear.

Be strong and of good courage,
Let no doubt enter in;
For in this great creation
Only Truth shall win.

Be strong, be kind, be loving,
Be sincere in all you do;
For I, your God, am powerful
To guide and prosper you.

Christ Our Protection

IF WE ACCEPT the presence of Christ as our protection, what does He protect us against? Shall we who do not go to sea think of Him only as protecting men from perils of the sea? Shall we who never encounter beasts in African jungles think of Him only as protecting men against wild beasts? What does the presence of Christ protect us from?

The presence of Christ protects us from all adverse thought and all that appears to be caused by adverse thought. Let us think of Christ as protecting us from even the effects of our own adverse thinking. Christ saves us from ourselves when He saves us from thoughts contrary to His will and to Truth. He protects us from that which is a menace to us. He protects us from whatever would keep our highest good away from us.

Is there anything in your environment or in your life that you would be protected from? Is there anything that seems to be keeping you from your highest good? The presence of Christ is your protection from all that keeps your good from you. Christ is your protection against every adverse thought in your mind. Christ protects, saves, and delivers you from all harm.

You carry with you the most powerful wonder-working talisman in the world when you carry with you the presence of Christ. He abides in the innermost part of your being. He is powerful to remove from your life all that is objectionable. He is mighty to protect you from all that would deprive you of your highest good. He is mighty to deliver you from every limited belief under which you hold yourself. He is mighty to save you from evil, hate, fear, disease, adversity.

The presence of Christ is your protection against evil in any form. Belief in evil cannot hold you under its sway when you are consciously identified with the presence of Christ. It has no power over you when you know that the presence of Christ has all power. You are protected when your mind rests upon Christ and you are conscious of abiding in His presence.

In the presence of Christ there can be no presence of evil. When we abide in spiritual consciousness, we realize that Christ is omnipresent good and we can say that evil has no presence, reality, being, or existence. Through this higher consciousness and through realizing absolute Truth, we become so conscious of the presence of Christ that nothing adverse to Him can be present in our life. Sin and evil cannot occupy the same place that Christ as omnipresent good occupies.

Our protection first appears in spiritual consciousness. In the higher understanding all thought of fear, evil, and danger disappears. The thing that has endangered us changes from three-dimensional proportions to spiritual proportions. It is resolved back into thought from which it is changed through Truth into nothingness.

Do you want to be protected from disease or contagion? Christ is your protection. In the consciousness that He is your life and wholeness there can be no thought of disease. Disease cannot spread or propagate itself in the consciousness where Christ is radiant life and health. The presence of disease cannot be known, felt, or experienced in the consciousness where Christ as life is declared all in all.

Do you want protection from hate and ill will? Christ is love. In the consciousness of omnipresent love there can be no presence of hate. In the presence of Christ as love you are protected from hate, because love neutralizes hate. Do you need to think of hate or personality? You need only think of Christ.

If you want protection from poverty or failure, you have but to realize that Christ is omnipresent as substance and supply. There can be no lack in the presence of Christ. You are protected from poverty and failure when you abide in the consciousness of Christ's omnipresence. You cannot lack and at the same time be loyal to Christ's Truth of your omnipresent supply.

Our protection comes entirely from our ability to realize that we abide in the presence of Christ. Thinking of Christ is entirely positive. As we think of Him we know that nothing adverse can abide in His presence.

When you need protection, seek a deeper consciousness of His presence. Think less of adversity, its presence or reality, and think more and more of Christ. All things can be done through Christ. He is your Saviour, your deliverer. His consciousness protects, sustains, and delivers you.—Frank B. Whitney.

God Cares for Me

IVA GILBERT WESTMEYER

God, omnipresence, will care for me
Whether on land, in sky, on sea.

God, ever loving, will guide my way
In the hush of night or the rush of day.

Whether I wake or am lost in sleep,
God's love is unfailing, boundless, deep.

I go my way with thankful heart,
For where I am, dear God, Thou art.

Blessed Readers:

There is a mutual desire in the hearts of all of us to maintain a sense of inner poise and peace so that we may bless our boys and those in danger with the assurance of courage and strength. We find that we have a tremendous urge to be even more conscientious than ever before in touching that "One Great Heart that beats for all." It is our contact with the Christ that enables us to find strength and renewal and assurance. It is this contact with the inner Christ that uplifts us, even in great danger and in great need.

In the spiritual work we are doing here at Unity, which all spiritual-minded persons are doing in their own way everywhere, we look past the too-impressive appearances of ruin and desolation and suffering to the reality of things enduring and eternal. The life and love and goodness of God are eternal realities. The promise of Jesus Christ, "Lo, I am with you always," is also an eternal reality. Through giving our thought to promises like this we find a sense of security even in the most distressing circumstances.

We ask you, our friends and readers, to continue faithfully in your daily application of the prayers given in DAILY WORD, using them for your friends and dear ones. We are standing together in our great work of love for humanity, and this work cannot fail. As you daily pour out a blessing upon those who need the help of your prayers you will indeed find an inner peace and satisfaction. You will know that you are doing your part in a spiritual way to help, even as we are sure you are also doing all within your power in outer ways to help further the cause of liberty, justice, and righteousness for all.

My Pact with Thee, O Christ

WITH THEE, O Christ, I make a pact today. I enter into that higher consciousness wherein I feel that Thou art a living presence with whom I am inseparably unified. I enter into the realization that we speak to one another. In making this pact, I realize that Thou art helping me to keep it to the best of my ability.

I make this pact with Thee today: I will do the best I can to keep my every thought centered upon Thee. Through Thy help I will keep my mind cleared of darkness, hate, fear, cruelty, disease, and failure. Through Thy heavenly assistance I dedicate my mind and thought to Thee. Through this dedication and consecration, my mind becomes the proper vessel to bear Thy message of heavenly truth.

By my pact with Thee, O Christ, I agree to think of Thee before I utter one word. My words shall be words of Truth and of light. They shall be words inspired by Thy grace and strengthened by Thy presence. Thy words, established in heavenly light and wisdom, shall be my words. My lips and my tongue are dedicated and blessed for the purpose of speaking Thy words of wisdom.

In making this holy pact today I agree to behold Thy presence of goodness instead of what men have called evil. By Thine assistance I am enabled to see beyond the appearance of evil and to behold omnipresent good. I behold Thee as the allness of good that in Truth leaves no place for man's concept of some opposite to good.

Bless my inner vision and my eyes today that I may see Thee clearly expressed in all things. Help me to keep my vision centered upon Thee this day and to have eyes dedicated to clear seeing. Help me to look beyond the appearance of personal limitation and to behold God's perfect man in visibility.

By my pact today I am endeavoring to hear only that which is harmonious. In place of words of evil, gossip, and malice, let me hear Thy "still small voice." Bless my ears that they may be attuned to words of Spirit. Enable me to hear clearly and distinctly all that Thou wouldst say to me.

By my pact today I would live in Thy heart. I would give my whole heart and soul to Thee for this day of my pact. I agree to try to keep out of mind every thought or feeling that would offend Thy blessed heart. I would feel that Thy heart encompasses me completely. Help me to know that I live in Thy heart, that it is my safe refuge, my retreat, my holy abiding place.

I make this pact with Thee today: I will serve Thee in whatever capacity Thou canst use me. By this agreement I would minister unto Thy loved ones by Thy prompting. I would make their burdens lighter, their way easier. May my hands be healing hands, hands of mercy, hands of service, hands of prayer.

I agree by my pact today to walk in Thy path. Keep my feet turned toward paths of wisdom, light, security. Set my feet upon higher ground. Show me the way to go that in all my ways I may glorify Thee. Reveal to me that Thou art with me every step of the way. I would know that Thou art ever at hand, that I walk in Thy path, that Thy feet precede mine.

I can encounter no difficulty in keeping this pact with Thee today because Thou art with me, inspiring and strengthening my mind, revealing Truth in all its fullness. I know that when I enter into this agreement with Thee, Thou comest to my side to aid me in all things and to make my way easier. Through Thy help I am divinely directed, divinely protected.

When I falter, I have Thy courage. When I succeed, I have Thy praise. As I go forward in Thy grace, I have Thine assurance that I need not turn back.—Frank B. Whitney.

The Secret Pavilion

THOSE WHO ascend higher and higher in spiritual understanding and consciousness find the sanctuary of God's love. They find the "secret place of the Most High," where they abide in the presence of God secure from all adversity. In His presence they find courage, assurance, strength.

In the 27th Psalm we read: "In the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion." We find here the specific information we seek in regard to a place of refuge in God. When is it available to us? When we need it, when we want a place of refuge. Where is it? None but God and we know, because it is secretly prepared, hidden away from those whom we call enemies or that which we believe destroys our peace of mind.

The secret pavilion where God secretes us from the world is an inner temple far from the eyes of our fellow men. It is the place to which we repair when in prayer. It is truly the holy of holies. It is the sanctuary in the innermost place of our being, where we find God and lose our personal self when in contemplation of Him. In the innermost realms of His love God will take care of us. He will keep us where no adverse thought can reach us. He will secrete us in that inner chamber where no evil or adversity can penetrate.

So you see that it is highly desirable that we find the way to the secret pavilion. It is at once a fortress, a place of retreat, a sanctuary, a source of reinforcement and power. When we dwell in His secret pavilion, God provides for us. He supplies us with peace, joy, love, health, and abundance. No good is withheld from us when we abide in His presence.

Where is the secret pavilion? Where God is. Wherever we can realize His presence, there He abides. In the midst of what we term trouble we have but to realize that we are in the midst of the secret pavilion. In situations where we seem to be carried away by adversity we need to know that we are transported through God's love to that pavilion where no harm can abide.

What is all the world seeking? Justice, freedom, peace, happiness. These can be found only in God. His secret pavilion is the treasure house whence we draw whatever blessing we need and desire. As we ascend higher and higher in spiritual consciousness, the way is made clear to us. The location of the secret place is revealed to us. We find out what it means to live detached from adverse thought, secure in the realization that in Truth we live in God's presence in His secret pavilion.

Students of Truth practice the silence, living in prayerful realization of the presence of God. They know that prayer is a vestibule to God's presence and to that secret holy place where there is nought but God and themselves. The higher truths of Being are revealed to them and they go forth preaching that God is omnipresent, omnipotent.

Living in the world but not being of it—not letting it master us—is the position we find ourselves in in our experience. We can see the necessity of fortifying ourselves against the adverse thought of the world. We can see why we must find the place where we may be secure from that worldly and adverse thought which would swerve us from the Truth of God—the truth about our peace of mind, health of body, salvation from fear and want.

The secret pavilion is something the other fellow cannot discover for you. He may be able to point out the general direction to you, but to you belongs the joy of finding it for yourself. Your attention must be turned from the opposite direction—the road that leads to evil, adversity, fear, and want. You must about-face and look toward God. You must direct your every thought to that inner place at the heart of your being where you instinctively feel that God is to be found.—Frank B. Whitney.

Sunday

CHRIST IN ME IS NOW EXALTED ABOVE ALL THINGS EARTHLY. I TOO AM LIFTED UP.

DO YOU long to be lifted above material things and to realize your oneness with all things spiritual and good, peaceful and harmonious? Then realize that Christ within you is ever seeking to have you know that you are above things of the earth. In your real nature, you are of heaven. Christ in you exalts you and inspires you to know this truth.

As long as you believe in the power of things to depress you, you will be weighed down by burdens and cares. Your only deliverance can come through realization of your freedom from these. Your only salvation lies in your proclaiming the high truth that exalts you above cares and tribulations and causes you to know your God self and your freedom in God.

Your exaltation is at hand. You now break the claim of any belief that would bind you. You now break the bond of mortal and material beliefs and know yourself as lifted up through Christ to things heavenly.

✦ Now will I lift up myself; now will I be exalted.
—ISA. 33:10.

MY FAITH IN MY HIGHER SELF AND MY FAITH IN GOD KEEP ME FROM ENTERTAINING DOUBT AND UNBELIEF. I HAVE COMPLETE FAITH!

I DO NOT doubt the power of God within me. I do not question how, why, or when God will do His perfect work. There is no unbelief in my consciousness, because I am filled with faith.

I have faith in the divine spark within me, faith in my higher self. I have faith in that within me which is of God. In the consciousness of my loyalty and fidelity to Christ I am conscious of my allegiance to my higher self. I realize that the good and true and noble in me cannot meet defeat. My faith is invincible.

My faith is demonstrable. Laying hold of faith, I lay hold of that something which is substantial, which links me to substance and reality. I have a tangible hold on the best things in life.

My faith increases and multiplies day by day. I see my faith grow and I behold more and more the truth of my oneness with God in faith. Increasing my faith, I increase my ability to accomplish all that I undertake to do.

MY LOVE WIPES OUT MY EVERY BELIEF IN HATE AND FEAR, AND I AM INFOLDED IN LOVE.

MIGHTY is the power of love. Nothing in all this world can resist its influence, because love is of God, filled with His Spirit, mighty with His power. When you love, God within you loves. No personal problem can prove too difficult for God nor too much for the power of His love.

Love wipes out hate and replaces it with itself. Hate cannot live in the presence of love, neither can it withstand the calm assurance of love. If another appears to hate you, let God within you take charge of the matter. Let love issue forth in place of hate. The thought of enmity will be dissolved by the love and grace of Spirit in you.

Love destroys fear. How can we be afraid when we know that God within us is all in all, all-loving, all-courageous? What can we fear when we realize that God within us is never fearful? How can we ever be afraid when we realize that love within us knows no defeat, no conqueror?

* Forbearing one another in love.—EPH. 4:2.

KNOWING THAT GOD IS NOW BRINGING GREAT THINGS TO PASS IN MY LIFE, I AM PATIENT.

THE IMPATIENT person very plainly shows that he does not trust God. He shows that he is afraid of future events. He shows that he does not believe that the power of God will come to his rescue when it is needed. He shows that he does not think of God as all power.

Quite often the appearance of unsettled conditions in a person's affairs is not evidence that evil is appearing. Often a change for the better may cause such unsettled conditions. The good may be so active in vanquishing evil that there is the appearance of turmoil, but this appearance is only deceptive.

When conditions are most alarming so far as appearances are concerned, a person should be most patient. He should relieve himself of all impatience in order to present to Spirit a peaceful mind through which to work.

Patience in small things serves to make us patient in times when we must show our ability to stand firm in the Truth.

GOD, THE GOOD, FILLS MY LIFE SO COMPLETELY THAT THERE IS NO ROOM FOR AUGHT OF EVIL.

LET US THINK of God as filling our mind, our heart, our body, and our environment so full of Himself that there is no place for any thought or presence of what men call evil. In the ideal world there is nothing but God, the good. Our duty is to know this truth so thoroughly that what is true in the ideal becomes true in the manifest.

As we see good coming into manifestation we see more of the presence of God. Our duty is to magnify God by beholding more and more of His presence. By doing this we see more and more of good coming into expression. Eventually there will be nothing but God, the good, manifest.

Begin today to see how much of good you can discover in your world. As you look for good you will find that there is a great deal of it. You will see good in yourself, good in those about you, good on every hand. Evil will cease to exist when your world is filled with God, the good.

* Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.—ROM. 12:9.

PROSPEROUS IDEAS FILL MY MIND, AND I AM GUIDED TO MY PROSPERITY.

PROSPERITY is the presence of God. I am unified with His presence, and I know that my supply is omnipresent and inexhaustible. I acknowledge God as the source of my blessings. Since He is everywhere present, I know that it is not necessary for me to go from place to place in order to find my good. It is where I am.

Jesus Christ gave the key to prosperity when He said: "Seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Through quietness and prayer I seek the kingdom of rich ideas within me. Through Christ I make contact with God-Mind, and thereby enter into the consciousness of prosperity, peace, and plenty.

The rich ideas of God can flow into those minds only which are willing and receptive. Through my honest and sincere seeking I am blessed with a rich consciousness of God's presence of abundance, and I stand faithful and steadfast, loyal and courageous at all times.

• They shall prosper that love thee.—PSALMS 122:6.

FATHER, I COME IN SILENT PRAYER TO LEARN MORE OF MY ONENESS WITH THEE.

STILLING every outer activity and lifting my thought above negative things, I lend myself wholly to God in silent, reverent prayer. In the inner meeting place where my heart communes with the heart of the Father I am released from all anxieties, and I find the beauty, loveliness, and holiness of His presence.

Thankfully and faithfully I attend this hour of prayer and meditation. This daily period of prayer brings to me peace, eternal joy, good will, and makes me know that as God's son I am heir to health, happiness, courage, prosperity, and overcoming power. From His presence within me I receive inspiration, illumination, all that I need to enable me to master every situation and to meet life serenely, confidently, victoriously.

Father-God, Thy light, peace, grace, and glory attend me when I meet Thee in prayer. My mind, heart, and soul are refreshed, renewed, and cleansed, and I am one with Thee. The benediction of Thy great love and peace surrounds, infolds, protects, and blesses me.

FROM EVERY EXPERIENCE THAT COMES TO ME I EXTRACT A BLESSING. GOD'S BLESSINGS—MY BLESSINGS—ARE ON EVERY HAND.

I REFUSE TO look upon any situation as one that can bring adversity into my life. I know that I have power through my high consciousness to draw good from the most insignificant experience. I know that experiences that seem forbidding must yield to me the good that is back of them. No good thing can escape me.

On every hand I find the blessings of God. I am blessed with many things for which I am thankful. Through counting my blessings, I cause them to increase. Through realizing that in Truth I am blessed with health, I know that in reality health is mine. Through giving thanks for plenty, I know that I am blessed with abundance and prosperity.

I go forth this day drawing blessings to me. I am blessed with opportunity because the divine urge within me impels me to a fuller expression of my capacities. The divine in me seeks to express itself through me and draws to me opportunities for this expression.

MARCH 11

Wednesday

I LIVE AND HAVE BEING IN THE GREAT
UNIVERSAL SPIRIT. I AM ONE WITH GOD AND INFINITE GOOD.

THE PURPOSE of today's lesson is to free our mind from the belief in separations and differences. Our thoughts are turned to spiritual unity, in which we see ourselves united in God-Mind. In the consciousness of our universal unity in Spirit, we are identified with that only which is pure, good, high, and noble. In God-Mind we cannot be identified with anything that is unlike Him.

When we live in a state of unhappiness it is because we believe ourselves to be identified with that which brings misfortune and dissatisfaction. We need to turn to God and unify ourselves with Him and with spiritual things. We need to free ourselves from the belief that we can in any way be receptive to the appearance of evil.

God is universal, and we are one with Him and His good wherever we are. When we become unified with the blessings of God we no longer feel a separation from the good that is desired; we are unified with all the good in the universe.

✿ The Lord is with thee.—LUKE 1:28.

For he will deliver thee from the snare of the

And from the deadly pestilence.

He will cover thee with his pinions,

And under his wings shalt thou take refuge;

His truth is a shield and a buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night,

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

For the pestilence that walketh in darkness,

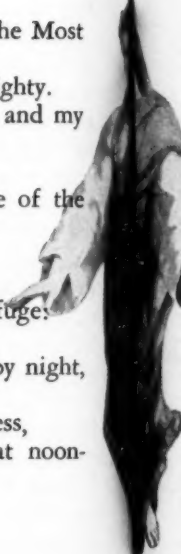

Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noon-

MY BODY IS GOD'S TEMPLE, STRONG, FREE, AND PERFECT.

FOR YOURSELF and for anyone who is in need of healing make this strong affirmation of Truth: God's mighty healing power is surging through you, strengthening, rebuilding, and restoring you. The current of His life permeates your entire being and causes every cell to tingle with new life and power. His infinite love infolds you, soothing all pain, bringing peace to your mind and perfection to your body.

As a mighty stream flows through its channel so the life of God moves swiftly through your veins, cleansing, purifying, revitalizing, and rebuilding your body. Regardless of what the healing need may be, do not be fearful or discouraged, for God's presence within you can heal you completely. His presence within you is the presence of life that heals all wounds, that knits bones together securely, that restores sight to eyes, hearing to ears, strength to heart, lungs, kidneys, stomach, every organ and function of the body. God fills you with His life, and you are made whole.

I AM UNSHAKEN BY APPEARANCES. KNOWING THAT GOD IS OMNIPRESENT AND ALL-POWERFUL, I STAND FIRM AND STEADFAST IN HIM.

TODAY I refuse to be moved by any appearance of negation in my own life or in the world about me. God has given me the power to decide for myself what I will see, and I choose to see only that which is true, eternal, righteous, and good.

Nothing in my own experience or in the conditions of the outer world can bind me to a philosophy of pessimism. I will build today upon optimistic and cheerful thoughts. I will focus my attention upon the virtues of my friends, associates, and all other persons in the world, for I know that there is something in every person worthy of praise and encouragement. I will take note of all the good I see everywhere and rejoice in it.

My mind and heart are now renewed in the joyous knowledge that God is still in command of His universe and that all is well.

THE PEACE OF GOD FILLS ME COMPLETELY, AND MY ENVIRONMENT BECOMES ONE OF PEACE.

LIFTING my thought above inharmonious things, I feel the peace of heaven. I realize that my world becomes like my thought about it. I know that I have power to change and to transform my world from one of inharmony to one of peace.

The peace of God is the peace that now fills my heart and makes me peaceful in mind and in body. Nought can compare with this peace. The belief in inharmony pales into nothingness as I contemplate the omnipresence of the peace of God. In Truth God is everywhere present, expressing Himself as the peace of heaven made tangible to earth.

My thoughts are pacified through my being lifted to the consciousness of perfect peace. I sense the peace of heaven. Nothing in all this world can destroy my peace of mind when I am established in Truth. Nothing can keep me from realizing that peace is now being manifested according to the perfect will of God.

TURNING FROM THINGS IN THE OUTER, I TURN TO CHRIST IN PRAYER.

“PRAY TO thy Father who is in secret.” Into this secret meeting with your Father you cannot take any warring thought. You cannot take into His presence anything that will in any wise put your meeting in jeopardy.

We think of sincere persons as being able to meet the Father in the secret place of prayer. We have faith in the prayer of those who are sincere. When they pray their sincerity inspires us to rise above adverse thoughts and causes us to rely upon Christ within. We think of sincere persons as being pure in heart, as bringing no falsity into the prayer room, as going before the throne of Christ in faith that their prayer has been answered.

Withdraw therefore from those things which have no place in the kingdom of Christ. Withdraw from those thoughts which cannot be taken into “thine inner chamber,” the holy of holies where you meet the Christ. Keep positive and sincere, believing that Christ only is the fulfillment of your needs.

✠ When thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber.
—MATT. 6:6.

THE LIGHT OF CHRIST IS NOW QUICKENED IN MY SOUL, AND I AM ILLUMINED.

WITHIN MY soul there is a light that burns brighter and more steadily than all the man-created lights of all time. It is the Christ light that came with me into the world, the light that has illumined every moment of my life, the light that will continue to be my guide and inspiration as I constantly recognize, appreciate, and express it.

If ever my way seems dark or uncertain, I need only turn to my indwelling Christ, who is always present and ready to disperse all shadows from my life. His luminous presence disseminates light to every corner of my world, and every obstacle on my path gives way before its radiance.

As I let the light of Christ shine into and through me to bless the world, it reaches out to illumine, encourage, and uplift other souls who are seeking the light. Thus I am fulfilling the command "Let your light shine," and each one who responds to my radiance adds brilliance and glory to the universal Christ light.

✿ I am the light of the world. —JOHN 8:12.

MY HEART IS FILLED WITH JOY, AND I REJOICE AND GIVE THANKS FOR EVERY MANIFESTATION OF GOOD.

NOTHING CAN take your joy away from you when you realize that its true source is within you. There is a wellspring of joy within each heart ready to come into expression when limiting thoughts are cleared away.

Resolve today to meet every experience that comes to you with a joyous heart. Replace every heavy, gloomy thought with one of light and joy. This is a magic formula that will change drabness into beauty, sadness into happiness; and as this spirit of joy becomes firmly established in your consciousness you will radiate it to everyone you contact.

When you truly abide in God's presence, when you give Him full and free expression in your life, your way is made serene, secure, luminous, and blessed. Each day you find new manifestations of good that add to your sustaining consciousness of poise, assurance, and cheerfulness. Then surely your joy is made full, and you are uplifted and upheld.

✿ In thy presence is fulness of joy.—PSALMS 16:11.

MARCH 18

I AM FAITHFUL TO THE TRUTH THAT I KNOW.

FAITHFULNESS to Truth means holding fast to belief in the goodness of God and the goodness of man, in spite of appearances to the contrary. It may not always seem easy to do this, but by practicing faithfulness in small matters we gain the larger faith that enables us to meet situations that require much of us in the way of faith. By overcoming the fear of lack in connection with the small everyday demands on our purse we make way for larger demonstrations of supply. By refusing to harbor a thought of being tired we build up day by day a sustained consciousness of vital, radiant health. By not allowing ourselves the meager luxury of hurt feelings or a sharp answer we take a definite step toward becoming wise, tolerant, loving individuals.

We do not need to wait for emergencies to arise to prove the power of God and Truth. Little by little, day by day, through faithfulness to the Truth that we know, we become more and more Christlike in thought, in word, and in deed.

☛ He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much.—LUKE 16:10.

Thursday

WITH PERFECT FAITH AND COURAGE I MEET
THIS DAY AND EACH EXPERIENCE THAT IT HOLDS FOR ME.

KEEP YOUR faith in God strong and unwavering. Never doubt Him or the power of your own faith to bring good to you. When a negative situation confronts you, meet it with courage and steadfastness and trust, and do not begin to doubt God.

God is with you where you are as the very help that you need. Lean on Him and have perfect faith in His power. Look upon each experience and situation as an opportunity to strengthen your faith, to let go of human limitations, and to let God act fully in your life.

Every incident, every development in your life is a challenge to you to be strong and unwavering in faith. Accept the challenge. As you meet each experience courageously and trustingly you will find that you have grown in grace and in wisdom, in inner poise and confidence, and that your faith has been increased, strengthened, and stabilized in the presence and power of God in your midst.

✿ For by grace have ye been saved through faith . . . the gift of God.—EPH. 2:8.

Class Thoughts _____

TO BE USED FROM

March 20 to April 19

The affirmations on this page, known as the Unity class thoughts, are composed by Charles Fillmore for the purpose of providing central ideas upon which Truth students everywhere may concentrate during the month. You are invited to use them with Silent Unity not only at the hours specified but whenever you have opportunity.

At 11 a. m. use this thought for

ILLUMINATION . . . Thy glorified idea of man is my inspiration and light.

At 12 noon use this thought for PROSPERITY . . . Thy bountiful substance is always with me and is manifest in continuous, unfailing prosperity.

At 9 p. m. use this thought for HEALING . . . "Be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect." Thy perfection is expressed in me as health.

The lessons on the following three pages are based upon these class thoughts.

MARCH 20

Friday

THY GLORIFIED IDEA OF MAN IS MY INSPIRATION AND LIGHT.

LIFE IS a continuing process of growth in spirit, soul, and body. Daily we undergo experiences that refine, elevate, and exalt us, and daily we become more nearly like the divine pattern that God our Father has shown us in His Son Jesus Christ.

We are told by the writer of Genesis that God created man in His image and after His likeness and Jesus Himself reiterated this teaching. But the flesh-and-blood man is not the perfect man of God's creation. He is the man who needs to be lifted up and spiritualized (glorified) so that he expresses all his divine potentialities.

God our Father has glorified His Son Jesus Christ, and in Him we find the perfect pattern of what we are to become. We are inspired to follow His perfect example, for what He has done we too can do. The light of His radiant presence shines in us, for us, and about us. He is the light of our world, the inspiration and light that unfailingly directs us to our goal.

✿ I am the light of the world.—JOHN 8:12.

THY BOUNTIFUL SUBSTANCE IS ALWAYS WITH ME AND IS MANIFEST IN CONTINUOUS, UN-FAILING PROSPERITY.

IN HIS book Prosperity Charles Fillmore says that when we gain the understanding that God is substance in continuous activity in the invisible realm, we shall have plenty regardless of what men about us are saying or doing.

He says further, "Even though there seems to be material lack, there is plenty of substance for all. We are standing in the very midst of it . . . we live and move and have our being in it. It is . . . everywhere, abounding, glorious spiritual substance. Take that thought and hold it. Refuse to be shaken from your spiritual stand in the very midst of God's prosperity and plenty, and supply will begin to come forth from the ether and plenty will become more and more manifest in your affairs."

The world does not control your prosperity. You alone have authority over it. Declare your recognition of substance, and call it forth into your life. Abundance is yours. It is continuous and unailing.

✿ Neither shall any be lacking.—JER. 23:4.

A MAN who was ill called upon a metaphysical teacher for help. He at once plunged into a recital of his symptoms, but the teacher interrupted him, and said he did not care to listen. Exasperated, the man burst out: "How can you help me when you do not know anything about me?" The teacher replied calmly, "I already know the only thing it is necessary for me to know. I know that you are a perfect child of God. When you know that truth you will no longer claim to be sick." And it was so.

The truth that every man is a perfect child of God is the basis of all spiritual healing. If you who read these words are seeking healing for body and mind, hearken now to the command of Jesus Christ: "Be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect." This command means you. God's perfection is yours the instant you accept it. It is now expressed in you as perfect health. Rise up now, and be whole.

MARCH 23

GOD IS EVER WITH ME.

EVERY MOMENT of the day and night we are in the presence of a love and power that infolds, sustains, and protects us. Knowing this we can realize constantly: "God walks beside me, guides my way." "Lo, I am with you always."

It is good to remind ourselves frequently that we cannot get away from God. We may think we are separated from Him, we may fear we are separated from Him, but our thinking or fearing cannot separate us from Him. To know that we are ever with Him keeps us in a higher state of consciousness. It keeps us reminded of our perfection, due to His presence within. It comforts us to know that we live, move, and have our being in Him. Since He is both within and without we know that we are unified with Him.

There is nothing to fear where God is, and wherever we are He is. There is no lack where He is, and wherever we are He is. There is no absence of life, strength, health, joy, power, safety, love, and beauty where He is, and wherever we are He is. We are filled with courage, faith, and poise.

☛ Abide in me, and I in you.—JOHN 15:4.

Tuesday

THE JUSTICE AND LOVE OF GOD GOVERN MY LIFE AND AFFAIRS, AND I AM FREE FROM ALL INJUSTICE.

JUSTICE comes to me from God. He is omnipresent love and justice, and He reveals to me a sense of oneness with His justice that I have never known before. Knowing that His way of love and justice is best, I seek to be just and honest in all my dealings. I do not try to get something for nothing, but give value in return for everything received. I realize that as I am honest toward others I cannot be unjustly dealt with.

I place myself, my thoughts, my actions, and my affairs under the guidance and governorship of God. When I thus harmoniously unify myself with His law of love and justice, I am receptive to good. I understand that the fullness of His good is my divine heritage, and I expect good only. In this consciousness I am freed from any tenseness of attitude I may have held toward myself, other persons or things.

I willingly let God's love and justice be expressed through me.

♣ He is a shield to them that walk in integrity.—PROV. 2:7.

MARCH 25

I AM NOT ANXIOUS OR WORRIED ABOUT MYSELF, MY AFFAIRS, MY LOVED ONES, OR MY FUTURE. I KNOW THAT ALL IS WELL.

ABIDING in the consciousness that all things are now working for my highest good, I have no thought of worry or anxiety. I abide in the consciousness in which I realize that there is nothing about which to worry. I abide in the high consciousness in which I behold myself, my affairs, and my loved ones as we exist in Truth. I see all things as moving forward to success.

I know that all is well. In the consciousness in which I know Truth I see all things properly adjusted and all conditions harmoniously related. I see myself in harmonious relation with my fellows and with all the universe.

Freeing myself from anxious thought, I begin to live life anew. I enter into a new world in which there is no worry or anxiety. I am mentally free from all troubled thought. My mind is at peace.

I know that "underneath are the everlasting arms." I am borne up in every test until I rise to the consciousness that in my life there are no tests, no hard experiences, no anxieties.

✿ Jehovah . . . will sustain thee.—PSALMS 55:22.

IMPATIENCE is an evidence of lack of faith in the supply, the love, and the power of God to rule in human situations and human lives. I am patient with myself. I have perhaps made mistakes and erred in judgment, for I am free to choose and do as I will. Undoubtedly I have inconvenienced myself in so doing, but I know that I have grown in wisdom and understanding, and I shall go on freer and wiser because of what I have learned through experience.

I am patient with what I see and hear in the world, and consequently I am untouched by so-called dangers and menaces. I am patient because I know that God rules and reigns supreme.

GOD IS MY TOWER OF STRENGTH AND SECURITY.

IF I fixed my attention on the external changes occurring on every side, I should find ample reason for feeling disturbed and insecure. Standards of security never before questioned for their solidarity are vanishing one by one.

Fortunately, though I see these changes taking place, I can be truly calm and secure, because my security is based on that which never changes "though the earth be removed." In the face of external confusion and conflict I can truly find peace, for when I trust God I can forecast that my every future experience will be a good one, that He will solve every problem, adjust every situation, and supply every physical and spiritual need.

God is a real tower of strength, a protection that meets human problems and saves me. I am no longer torn by doubt or fear for tomorrow, since my hope is no longer in material values. Nothing can take me from God, and nothing can prevent His loving power from providing positive salvation for me.

SINCE God is omnipotent and I am made in His image and likeness, how can any person, thing, or condition in the outer world have power over me? When I am tempted to be afraid, or when I feel a sense of frustration or defeat, I realize my omnipotence as a child of God and thus overcome every thought of weakness, adversity, or limitation of any kind.

Today I eradicate from my mind the belief that I can at any time be separated from God, my Father. I rejoice that His love is a mantle of protection around me, that His wisdom ever guides me to act wisely and courageously, that His power in me is greater than anything in the outer.

No matter what I have to meet today, or what events the coming days may bring forth, I shall face them with the assurance of a conqueror. I know that the victorious Spirit of God in me is equal to any demand of life, and I go forward in trust, joy, and confidence.

* Thine, O Jehovah, is . . . the victory . . . for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is thine.—I CHRON. 29:11.

GOD IN THE MIDST OF ME IS MY LIGHT AND MY SALVATION.

“THE LIGHT shineth in the darkness.”
Throughout history the way has never been so dark but that somewhere ahead there was a gleam of light, which if believed in and followed steadfastly would lead the wayfarer safely and surely into fullness of light. God’s light shines eternally for us.

At times clouds of disaster may seem impending and obstacles may appear to be insurmountable, but through faith in the all-powerful light of God the fog of depression can be penetrated and lifted and man can make his overcoming.

As long as man turns to the inner light, seeking to know and to do what is right, what is for his good and the good of others, right will prevail. In Spirit there is no failure. There is good in all. What seems to be failure is but an opportunity to grow and attain greater happiness and satisfaction than has before been known. What is learned through apparent failure can be used to gain entrance to the heights of achievement, the gateway to glorious triumph!

☛ The light shineth in the darkness.—JOHN 1:5.

I CONFIDENTLY RELY UPON GOD'S INDWELL-
ING SPIRIT FOR GUIDANCE, AND HE LEADS ME IN PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS.

KNOWING THAT God's wisdom is mighty to direct me aright in every detail of life, I constantly turn within to His Spirit for guidance. In every experience I seek first the consciousness of God's presence, and I give thanks for His light, which shines upon me.

When I am receptive to divine guidance, God speaks to me in the silence and I am illumined and inspired, filled with confidence and assurance, made aware of the wisest course of action. I know what steps to take to bring me the good that God has appointed for me.

Upheld and directed by God's Spirit of wisdom, I am calm, poised, and free. There is no doubt or fear in my heart, for I know that God's will ever draws me into paths of peace, righteousness, and abundant good.

Today I will endeavor to carry out with love and sincerity the instructions and counsel that have been given me by the Spirit of God in my midst.

☛ Thou wilt guide me with thy counsel.—PSALMS 73:24.

MARCH 31

I FACE LIFE COURAGEOUSLY, KNOWING THAT GOD IS MY FATHER, ALWAYS WITH ME TO BLESS AND SUSTAIN ME.

FROM what standpoint do you face your experiences? Do you think of yourself as a limited, weak mortal subject to every adversity, or do you approach life from an understanding of your innate divinity?

You are not what you appear to be. There is that in you which is ever in touch with the all-powerful Spirit of God, that which is divine and perfect and never under the influence of inharmony. You are not a weakling. You have power from on high to meet every situation. You are a child of God, and you have always with you His infinite power to give you courage, His wisdom to direct your steps, His life to strengthen you. There is no negation in all the world that can take from you your divinity, and nothing has power to hinder you from receiving God's mighty help. Your part is to believe in your divine sonship and in God's omnipresence. As you live by this vision you face life victoriously and with supreme confidence.

✱ I live by the faith of the Son of God.—GAL. 2:20 (A. V.).

For Easter Gifts

IF YOU wish to remember your friends or loved ones with Easter gifts they will enjoy for a long time, we suggest the books THE CONTEMPLATION OF CHRIST and MASTER CLASS LESSONS. These books by Ernest C. Wilson make ideal gifts, as they are both inspirational and instructive. MASTER CLASS LESSONS is one of the standard Unity books, and the price is $1. The lessons are simple and practical and formed the basis of Doctor Wilson's "Master" classes over a period of years. THE CONTEMPLATION OF CHRIST is a small inspirational book. It was written by Doctor Wilson after he had spent a year in study of the life of Jesus Christ, and it is suitable for Easter giving. The price is 50 cents.

Send Greeting Booklets to Your Friends for Easter

Greeting booklets make ideal remembrances for your friends for Easter. These booklets carry an inspiring message and will express your Easter greetings in a sincere and friendly way. An Easter envelope comes with each booklet. BREATH OF IMMORTALITY, by Celia Caroline Cole, is the new booklet. Other booklets are these:

Read What Prosperity Bank Users Report

FROM NEW YORK: We had such an abundance of fruit and vegetables on our land, and we have given a lot to our friends.

FROM OKLAHOMA: Our prosperity has multiplied by leaps and bounds! Our total income is from seventy-five hens and three cows, and they have kept up production wonderfully.

FROM IOWA: This last Bank drill certainly brought wonderful results. My husband found a job just four weeks before his sixty-fifth birthday, and my daughter was offered the school she wanted.

Fill out and return the blank below if you want to use the Prosperity Bank drill to help you demonstrate more prosperity. Silent Unity will pray with you as you follow the drill. You may use the blank to send DAILY WORD to your friends—sharing multiplies your good; and if you wish you may include your own renewal or subscription.
